

The Letter Of Paul To The Romans

Intro: This morning we begin a study of Paul's Letter to the Christians in Rome. The theme of Romans is the Gospel or Good News (1:16-17). Romans is all about the Gospel or Good News. More specifically, the Gospel is a revelation of God's righteousness, which is understood and appropriated by faith in God's Son, Jesus Christ.

I. The Righteousness Of God Revealed In The Gospel (1:1-17)

A. Salutation: The gospel concerning God's Son (vv. 1-7)

1. Paul's call and commission to preach (v. 1)

QuickTime™ and a decompressor
are needed to see this picture.

2. Paul's explanation of the good news he shared (vv. 2-7)

a. It was promised in the Old Testament

b. It centers on the Person of God's Son, Jesus Christ (vv. 3-4)

c. It is available to all men (vv. 5-7)

B. Thanksgiving: For the Roman believers' faith (vv. 8-15)

C. Theme: The gospel of the righteousness of God (vv. 16-17)

Applications:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.